

A Faberge Picnic

From childhood memories of days out with grandparents in a deprived town where the local parks picnic bench was stolen, to questioning why would somebody steal something so mundane?

A Faberge Picnic - Expressing greed and desire alongside childhood nostalgia. A fairytale of a selfish couple; on the run after a magical discovery of finding a Faberge Egg within their basket... Realising it has powers to transform anything it touches into a Faberge version of itself, they want to get back to the car with as much as they can as quickly as possible

Fabrics weight was too much -> needs more structure but I like the shape as a skirt - looks like the basket

Add cuff to hold by sleeve in look b

Too much - Can't even see - Shows the GREED

Looks nice with bits pulling down & petticoat on show - just add a bit more so it is a Super Mini Skirt?

Square Picnic basket inspo

Round inspo

Fairytale with a darker twist
Lolita styles

Grandpa's style shirt & jacket

Leather? Satin?

Attach hood?

Handles of the basket

Other pocket ideas

Plug in style - 3D oval (like egg) - woven - put with fabric jacket rather than woven for contrast

"Picnic basket"

- Hand Woven with the plastic rattan
- Binding across the top (chest)
- Petticoat for squared oversized hips
- Hook & Eyes at the back
- PVC lengths coming from hip/petticoat

"Blanket" Coat - Tartan embroidered in & embellished flowers scattered across → Oversized neck - give the suspicious look
- Frill on sleeve & bottom

Woven dress underneath with black sheer skirt coming from it - big skirt like traditional French Picnics

Basket oversized 1 Pearl buttons

Cape style top - like in fairytales - Woven so would be structured

Sheer green skirt of flowers - rolled-hem edges

Satin skirt - Pearl buttons down - Undo buttons & skirt turns into picnic blanket - lined with silver insulation - pair of mini shorts under for when taking off the blanket

Topstitch Colour Options

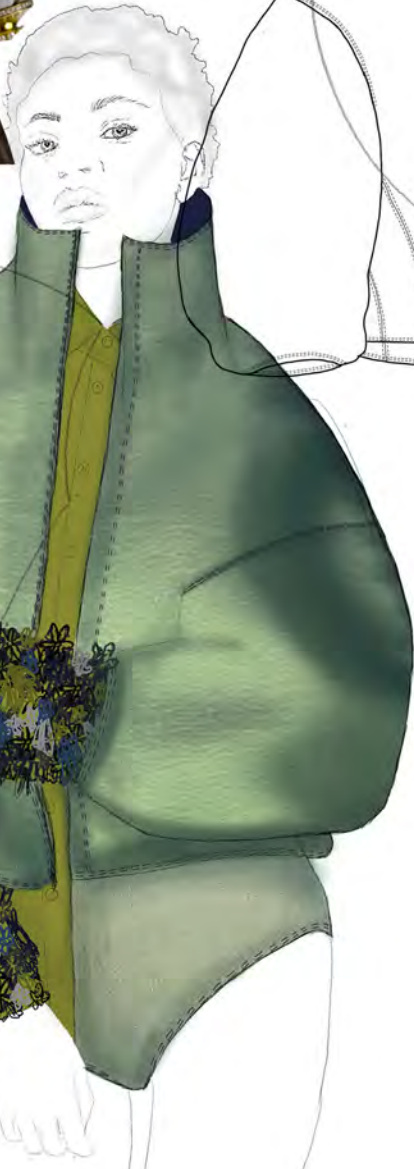

Matches the lining

Stashing the egg -> Making the sleeves balloon out?

Have as 'plug in' technique rather than as pockets

Add Zip in one of these -> Line in insulation -> Cooler work for keeping warm too

ON LIVING
ON F
C/E

'St. Helens Seal' -> Hometown type of dress -> The picnic bench thief -> tracksuit - High up neck

Have Eggs Line style all over

Lines following pattern of Fabergé Egg

Stay up in real fabric -> Hide identity

Idea of Stuffed by having it raised by 4cm

Sleeve too big - just looks creased -> Make pattern smaller

More like Grandads style off the shoulder as it's been quickly thrown on

Astroturf puffer jacket

Add thin silver thread for diamonds & puffer effect

Flower beads

Shoulder pads

Hiding the mundane -> greed wanting it all to be Faberge

Pockets

Astroturf holds shape

Caged Sheer with boning
