

Introduction

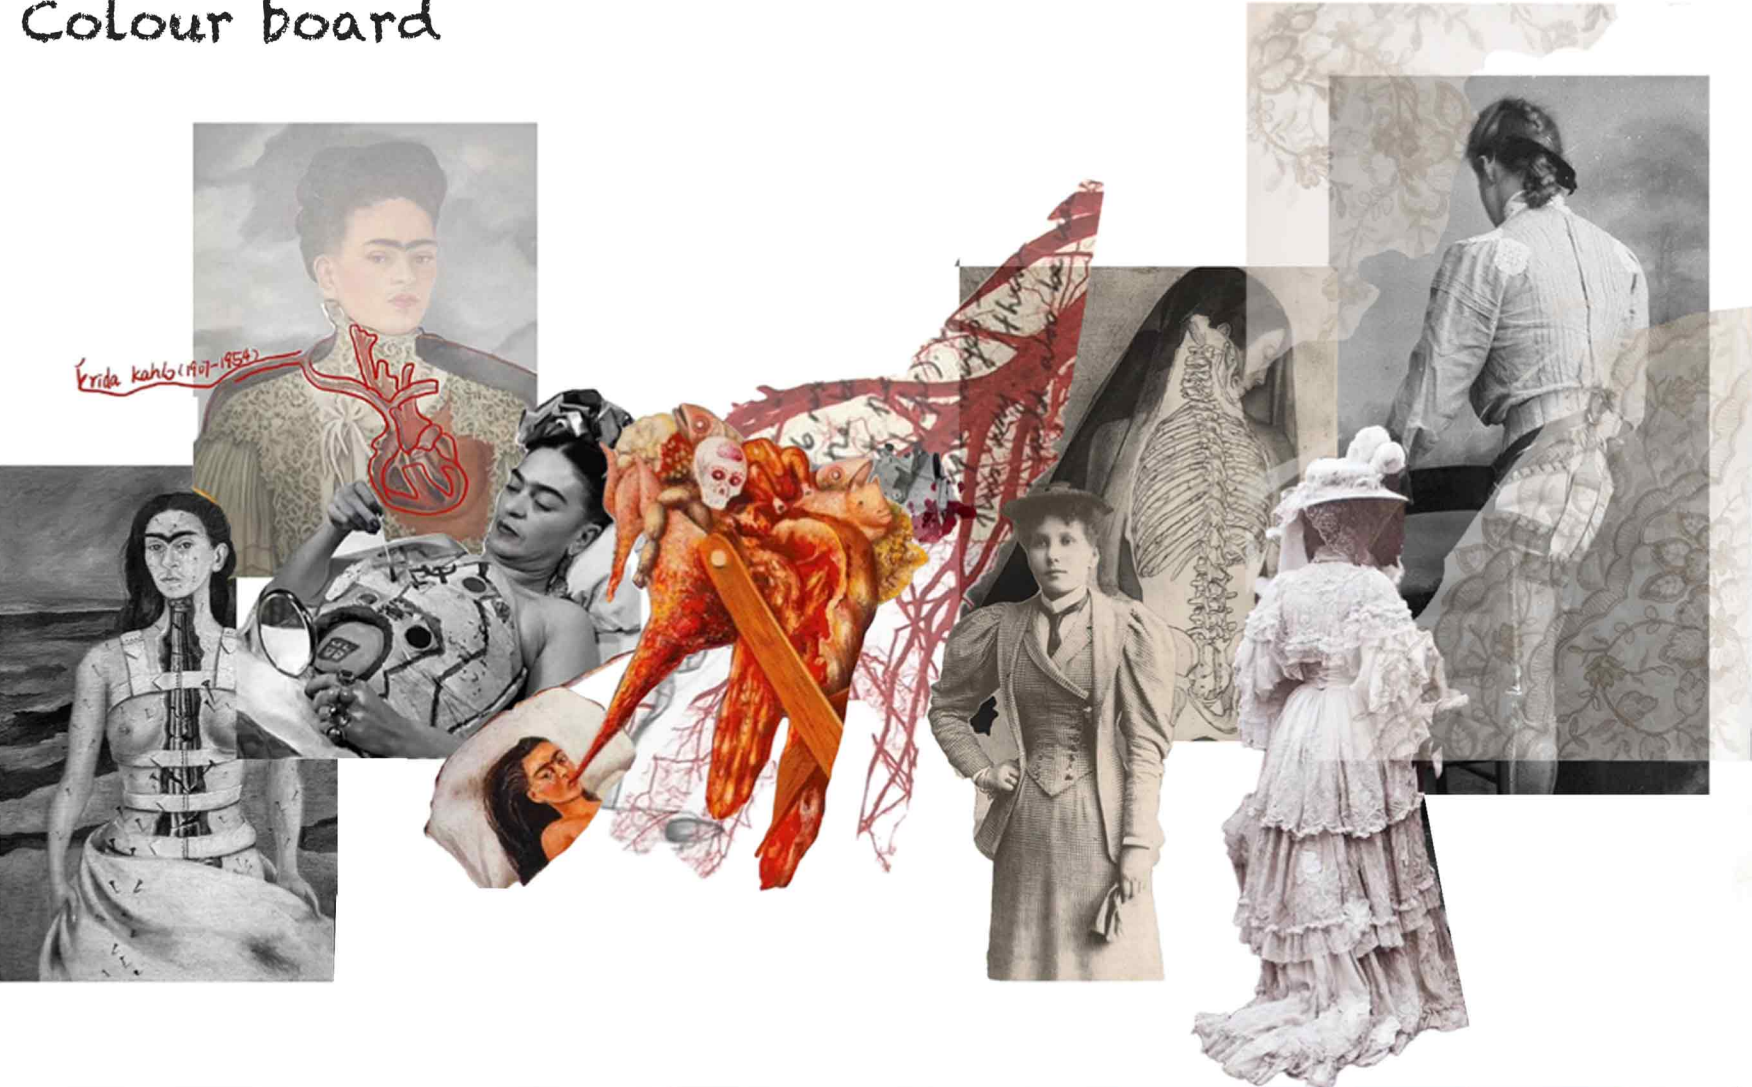

The inspiration comes from Mexican female painter Frida Kahlo, who experienced 35 surgeries and suffered from various diseases, and uses her feelings and imagination of pain to paint a still optimistic attitude toward life, breaking out of the cocoon like a butterfly. The project also combines Victorian costumes such as corsets, where women are bound and hurt by traditional costumes.

Invincible body

Colour board

242424 CF744C 606060

7A120D D1958A E4AA85

Invincible body

Fabric board

Heavy worsted flannel twill 100% wool
Composition: 100% wool
Gram weight: 380g/m

606060

Worsted wool suit fabric
Composition: 30% wool +70% polyester
Gram weight: 350g/m

606060

High count worsted wool suit fabric
Composition: 70% wool +30% polyester
Gram weight: 290g/m

7A120D

Silk Satin
Composition: 100% silk charmeuse
Gram weight: 100g/m

CF744C

Silk Satin
Composition: 100% silk charmeuse
Gram weight: 100g/m

D1958A

Pearl chiffon fabric
composition: 100% polyester
Gram weight: 100g/m

E4AA85

Roman knitting
Ingredients: 70% cotton +20% polyester
+10% elastic spandex
Gram weight: 650g/m

E4AA85

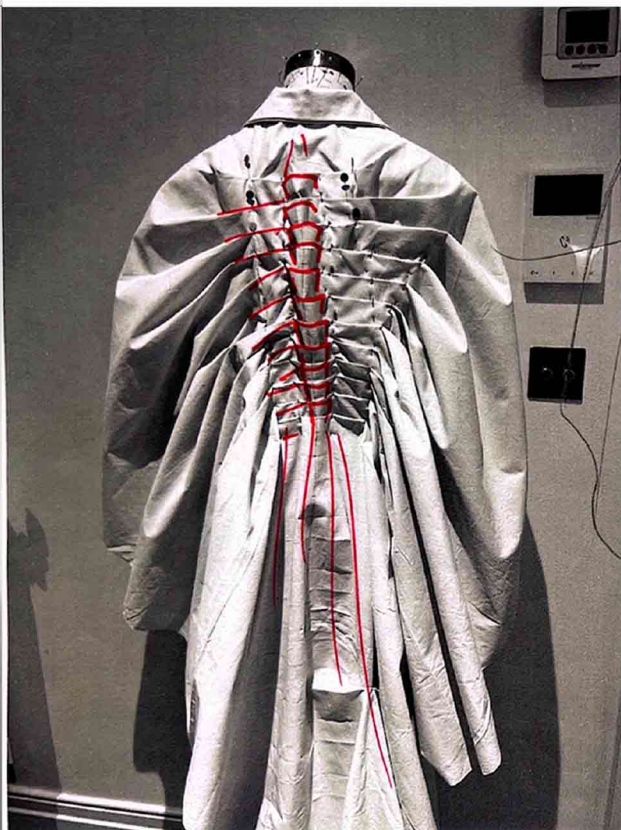

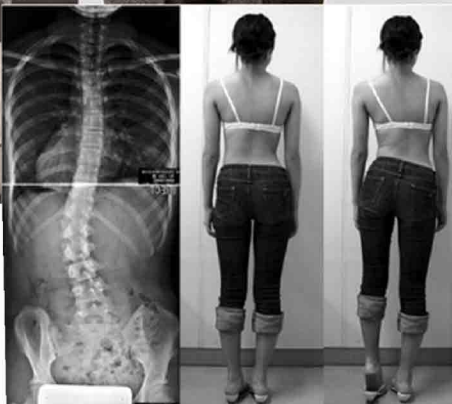

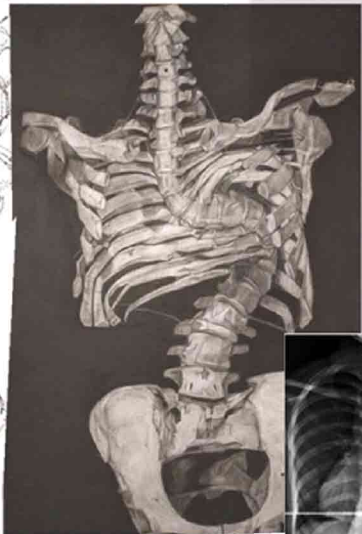

PU leather
composition: 100% polyester
Gram weight: 400g/m

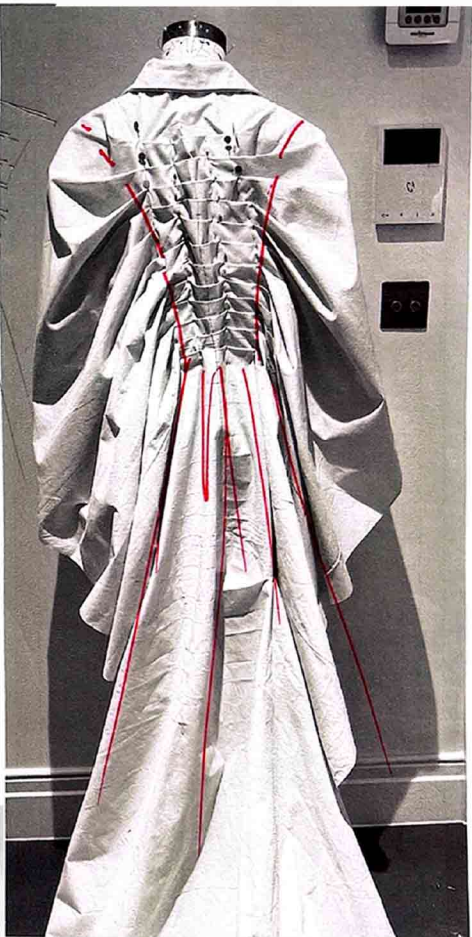

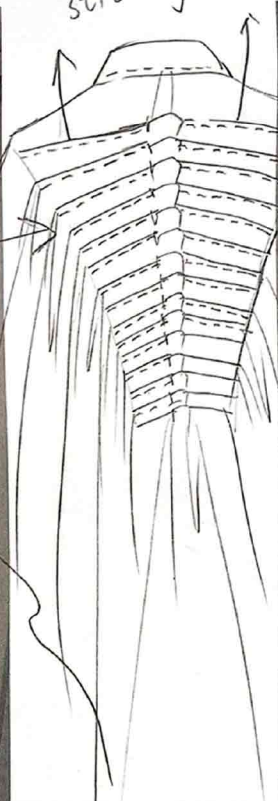

242424

Invincible body

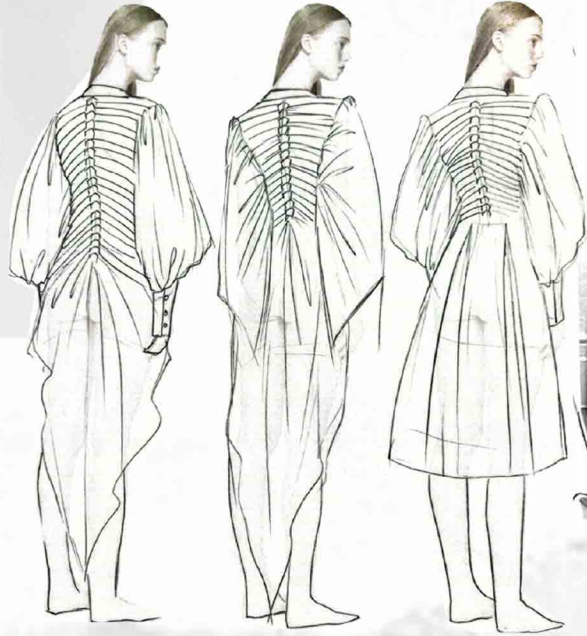

stitching both side

Invincible body

for ← more fabric.

→ make
the structure
nicer.
add
fusing

 Invincible body

Look2 development

Invincible body

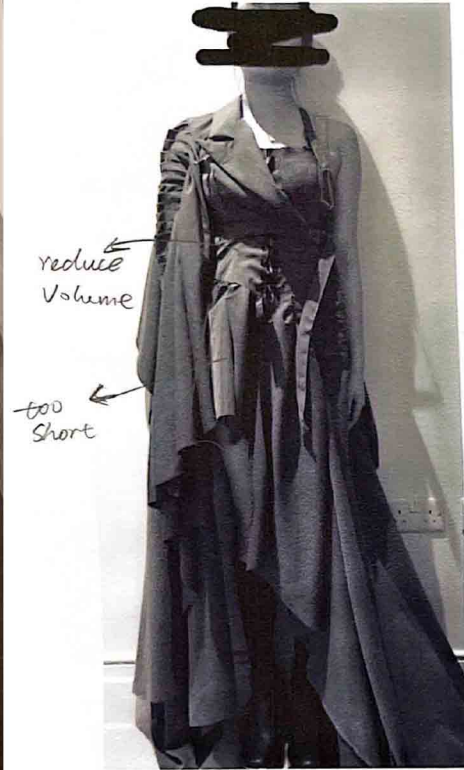

add an invisible zip

Invincible body

Look3 3D experiment

Invincible body

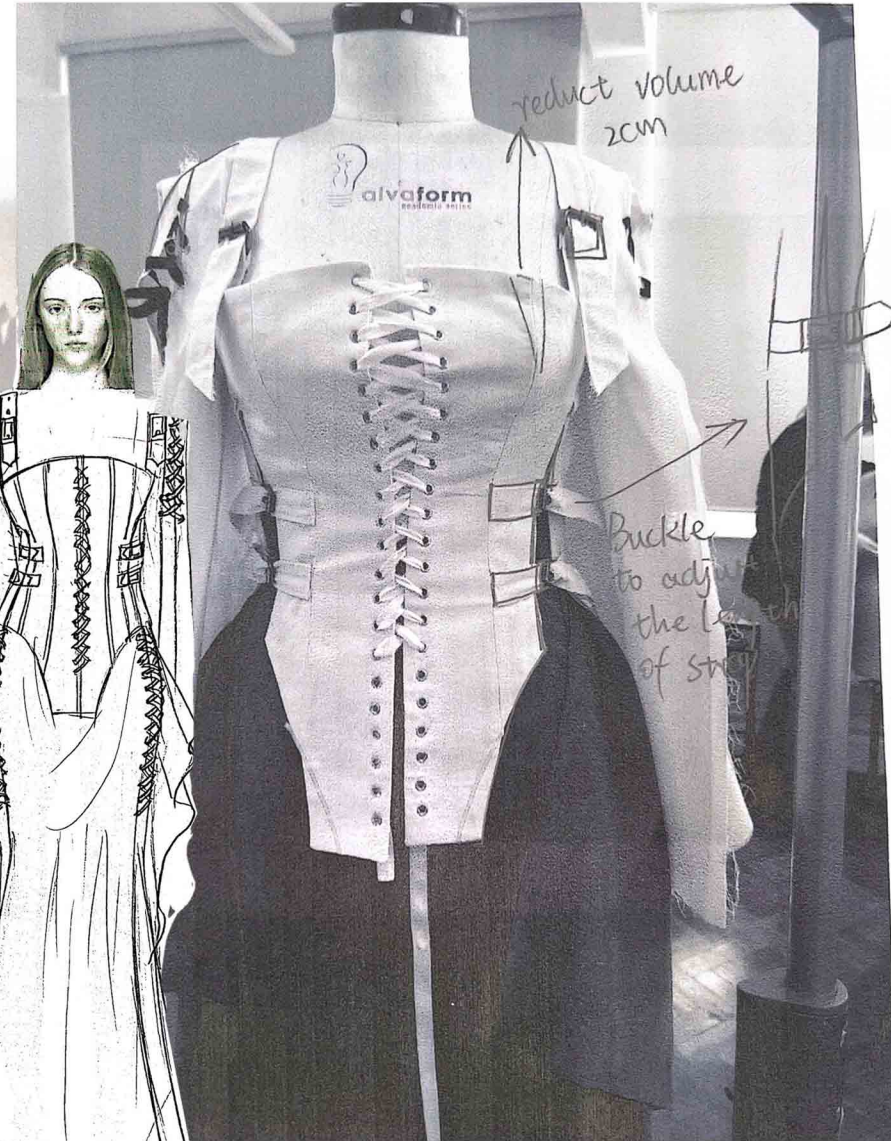

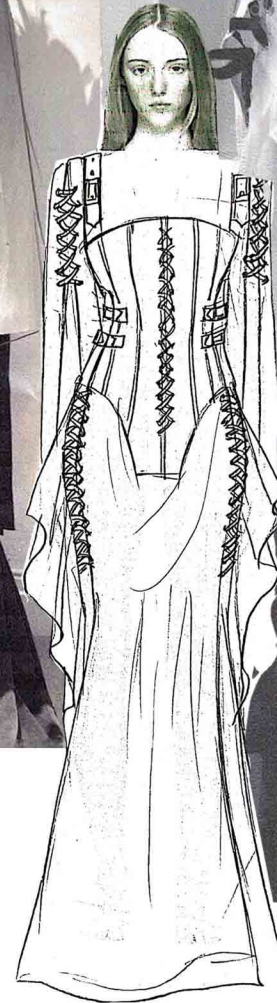

Look4 Idea board

Invincible body

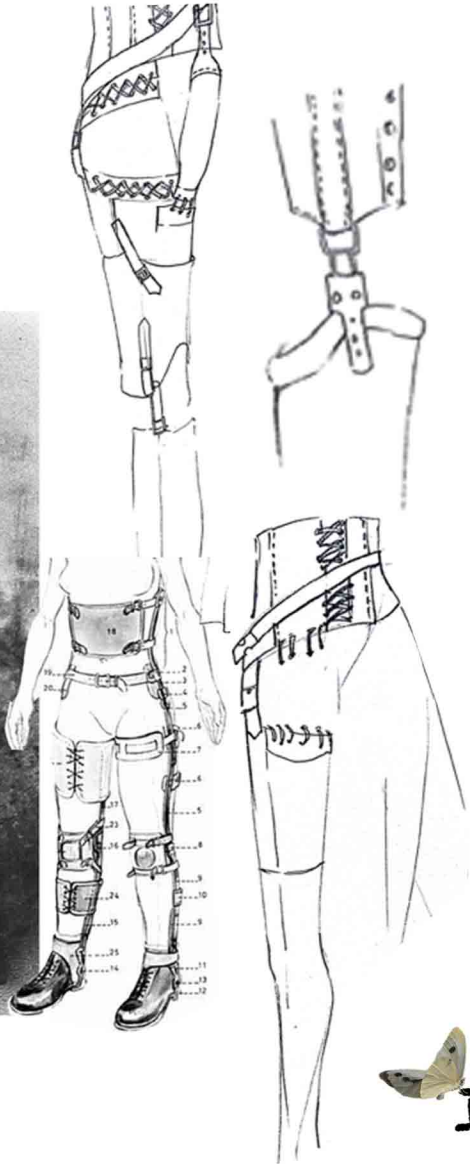

Look4 development

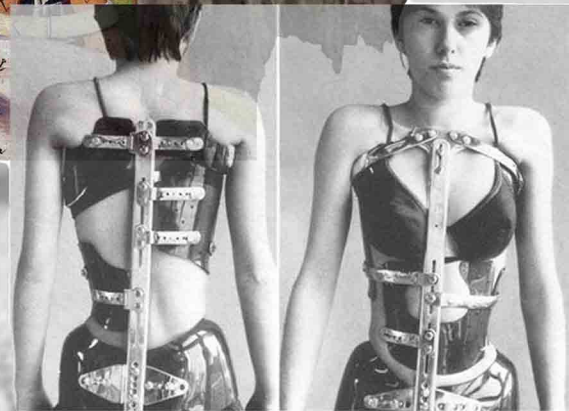

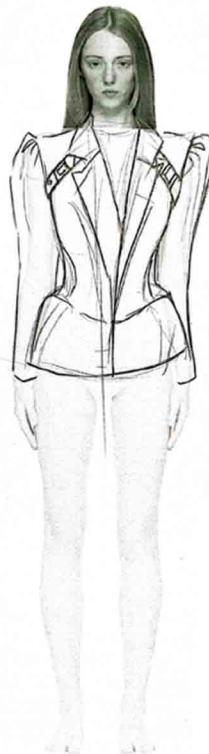

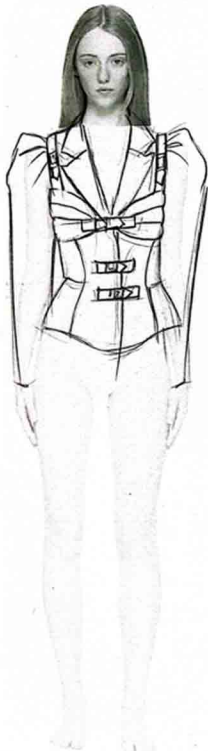

Invincible body

Looks idea board

Invincible body

Invincible body

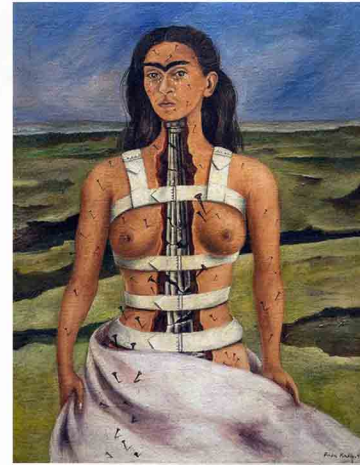

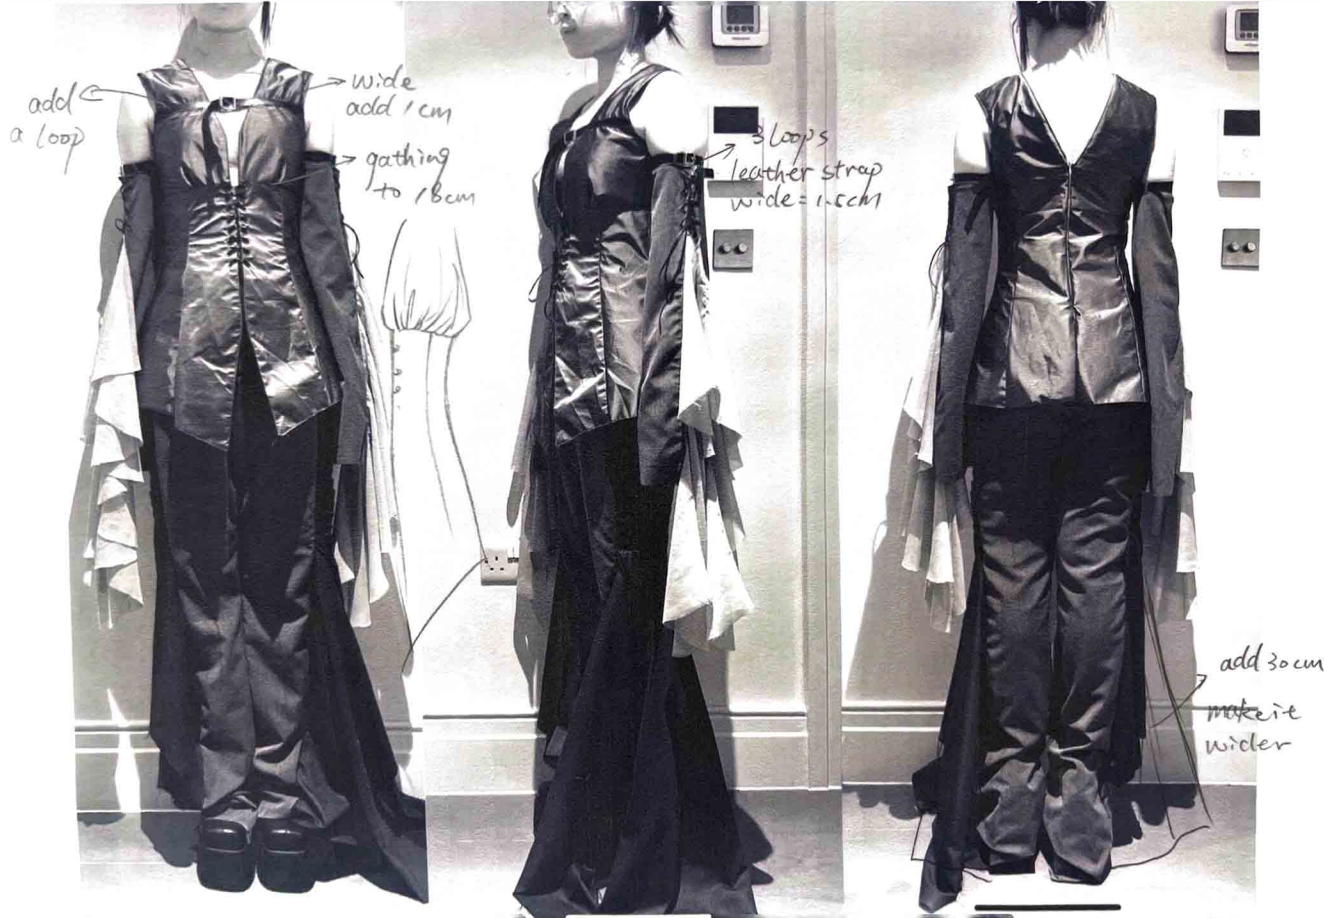

Look 5 3D development & outcome

Invincible body

LOOK6 3D experiment & idea

Invincible body

Line up

Invincible body