MONKEY MIND VS. MONK MIND

In my mini collection, I celebrate the beauty of all emotions. Just as the sky embraces stormy clouds and sunshine, our inner world holds a spectrum of feelings. With fabric and colors, I invite you to embrace your emotional richness. Let's navigate life's complexities together, finding calm amidst chaos with #CalmInChaos.

#CalmInChaos

THINK LIKE A MONK

IN YOUR MIND for PEACE and PURPOSE EVERY DAY

I AM PASSIONATE
AND I AM
SENSITIVE AND I HAVE SO MUCH CAPACITY FOR LOVE

Our minds
is like a little monkey who likes to wander
from branch
to branch Jumping from one thought to another...

...It likes to constantly swing between the past and the future

Invite that little monkey
to rest on one branch for a moment and just breathe

Jay Shetty's book 'Think Like a Monk' sparked the creative inspiration for my collection. Shetty's profound insights into navigating the modern whirlwind toward purpose and happiness, drawn from his monkhood, contrast the frenetic 'monkey mind' against the serene 'monk mind'.
